

The 3 “students” (teachers dressed in IJ uniforms) shared about their learnings and joys from a recent mission trip to Cambodia, and how each of them have their own different ambitions. A short movie clip was shown on the three trees, and what they wished to be. It showed how God made use of them to be better than what they hoped for. The girls then reflected on what they would like to be when they grow up.

The moral of the play - is that when things don't seem to be going your way, always know that God has a plan for you. If you place your trust in Him, God will give you great gifts. Each of the 3 trees got what they wanted, just not in the way they had imagined.

Easter Performance

We hoped that everyone went home with the key Easter message - that we don't always know what God's plans are for us. We just know that His ways are not always our ways, but His ways are always best.

Having had to perform in front of over 1500 girls, we (the parents) all got cold feet thinking about dancing and trying to get the girls to join in the song "Put Up Your Hands" by Planet Shakers. However, by the end of the presentation, the girls needed no prompting in getting to their feet and joining us in singing and dancing. This alone made the 6 weeks of preparation and uncertainty a worry of the past. It was nice to see Mrs. Tan and the teachers relaxed, and joining in the joyful celebrations, all with their hands up!

Dance: Praising Our Lord

In Easter tradition, yummy chocolate Easter eggs, packed by dedicated parent volunteers were distributed to round up the lovely morning. Everyone felt the very special joy of Jesus Resurrection touch them and felt a joyous renewal and affirmation.

A big thank you and God Bless! to all the moms and dads who so willingly volunteered their time, creativity and labour in bringing God's word to life for all during this very special Easter!

CPC's Easter Gift

As an Easter gift, packets of chocolate Easter eggs were given out to all the girls. The eggs were lovingly packed by our PVs.
